

Stress Management for Lawyers: How To Increase Personal & Professional Satisfaction In The Law

When you practice law, stress comes with the territory. Such stressors as time pressures, work overload, conflict, and difficult people can rob you of a satisfying career and personal life. It doesn't have to be that way, however. You can take effective action and this book, written specifically for lawyers, shows you how. As I read the third edition of Amiram Elwork's book on lawyer stress, one word came constantly to mind: ESSENTIAL - absolutely so for every lawyer in the country. No one knows as much as Elwork about this topic, and his knowledge is a gift to the profession. --Steven Keeva, author of Transforming Practices: Finding Joy and Satisfaction in the Legal Life Dr. Elwork's book is a standard in the area of lawyer stress. It is concise and highly readable, and yet exhaustive in scope and well-researched. I would assign it as a required reading for all law students and lawyers. --Susan Daicoff, Professor, Florida Coastal School of Law, and author of Lawyer, Know Thyself Dr. Elwork delivers solid advice that helps lawyers prevent and manage stress. Lucidly written and grounded on sound psychological principles, this is the leading book on the subject. I recommend it highly. --Larry R. Richard, Director of Leadership and Organization Development, Hildebrandt International Writing a book with lasting power means writing a book that serves. This book touches on all the essential elements that lawyers need for creating a balanced life at work and at home. The information is clear, the advice is correct. --George W. Kaufman, author of the Lawyers Guide To Balancing Life And Work: Taking The Stress Out Of Success.
