

Flirtatious - A Wild and Crazy Love Story of Persistence and Bad Attitude

Barbara is absolutely determined to convince her friend Robert, a flirtatious millionaire, to marry her-but Robert is adamant about setting the record straight: he is not interested in being her husband, come hell or high water! No matter how many times he explains, and in spite of his many valid reasons, the tenacious Barbara counters each point with an argument outlining why he should, in fact, go along with her plan. Try as he might to keep their relationship platonic, Barbara is a woman who simply doesn't back down; as far as she is concerned, Robert will ultimately submit to her will, but as far as he is concerned, it's foolish to be chained to a difficult woman when one has a multitude of willing women who want him with no strings attached. Follow the roller-coaster of emotions as the story hurtles through the good, the bad, and the ugly aspects of relational complexities that Barbara and Robert face, both individually and together. While wrestling with the challenges of their hurtful past and the insanity of the present, who will ultimately emerge victorious in this tempestuous clash of wills-and this treacherous battle of love?
