

One Autumn: Work, family life and rugby league in the 1990s

Work, family life and rugby league in the 1990s One Autumn is the fourth novel by Geoff Lee about life at home, work and play in the fictional South Lancashire town of Ashurst. 1992 and 1993 were tough times: Did the engineering firm Wilkinsons survive the Dutch takeover? Did the campaign to keep the library open succeed? And Thelma has a serious accident. Rugby league is always there with St Helens striving for success, and various old workmates come into the story.
