Excerpt from The Life of William J. Brown, of Providence, R. I: With Personal Recollections of Incidents in Rhode Island In presenting this work to the public, the object of the author may be looked upon in a two-fold sense, viz., that he is totally blind, afflicted with paralysis, and without means to meet his obligations and support himself; and as a necessary resort to accomplish his object, he herein presents to the public a review of his past life, believing that it will commend itself to the favorable notice of his many friends, and to the public generally. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
