

Rebels in Paradise: Inside Story of the Battle for Celtic Football Club

On the 4th of March 1994, a small group of determined rebels finally took control of Celtic Football Club to end a 106-year family dynasty. This book documents the campaign to save the club from the receivers and wrestle control from the board. David Low and Francis Shennan were both involved in the takeover, as the financial expert who witnessed the last document being signed and the business journalist who broke the story of the takeover plan respectively.
