

Driving Business Value with Innovative Technology Strategies: IT Leaders on Strategies for Differentiating a Company and Increasing Profit (Inside the Minds)

Driving Business Value with Innovative Technology Strategies provides an authoritative, insiders perspective on fostering an environment of creative growth within the IT department. Featuring technology executives from leading companies across the country, this book addresses key topics such as identifying areas of opportunity, making a business case for new innovations, working across departments, and creating a collaborative environment. From evaluating the relevance of various trends to assessing internal capabilities, these executives share their insight on the considerations necessary for successful technology innovation. Additionally, these authors discuss the challenges of innovation, such as evaluating potential ROI, maintaining realistic expectations, and recognizing when projects aren't working, and give suggestions for avoiding potential pitfalls. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the leading technology minds today, as these top executives offer their thoughts on creating an innovative technology department that will drive profit across the business. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities. Chapters Include: 1. Steve Heilenman, Chief Information Officer, Computer Aid Inc. - Driving Business Value Through Technology Innovation 2.
