

Who Cares? Gods Path for the Caregiver

How should you respond to your parent when they act like a child? Does God expect us to love others when they are demanding and want what they want now? Thrust into the role of caring for a grandmother, an aging father, and eventually in-laws, Valeri Miller experienced emotions ranging from love to anger, from isolation to social strain and many others. As family members struggled with the loss of independence and the prison of their own frail bodies, Valeri had her own struggles. Striving to show love and care to everyone else, God was doing a much-needed work in her own heart. Who Cares? Gods Path for the Caregiver is packed with Spiritual truths and practical tips. Its candid message brings hope and encouragement to those caring for the aged.
