

Zephaniah: Removing the veil

You Are Not A Prisoner Of Fear; You Have The Ability To See, To Hear, And To Speak! God has a plan for you. He wants to turn your life around just like he did for the former blind man. God, who is the Potter, is always searching for a person that He can mold and shape to become what He created them to be; and that would be you. He has chosen you! Whether you are great or small in the eyes of men, it does not matter to Him. God is calling you! Arise now for the Spirit of the Lord has given you the power to make the necessary changes in your life. Once you accept His plan, you will never allow a blind person to lead you again. When you accept Gods plan you will: Arise above peoples opinions. The veil will be removed from your eyes. You will be able to express His word with great boldness. I have accepted the mandate from the Lord to obey in whatever He has commissioned me to do. I realize that not every mission is easy, but the work of the Lord still has to be done. I believe that I was chosen by God to write on these topics that are written in this book; I attempted to ensure that words written are based in the Word of God. I pray that it will be an inspiration and it brings deliverance to you in the area where it is needed. I encourage you to live your life in the liberty that God has given; this is His ultimate desire for you.
