

Bags of Apples, Oranges, Nuts and Hard Candy

A heartwarming story of a Mother's love and her life, unusual, during a different era in the mountains of Virginia and Kentucky. The real life characters that crossed the family's path and the family members are full of personality. A wealth of loving, human, family interaction makes the past jump out in the reading. The title has the explanation of a story all its own that comes out in the book. The style lends to reach the nurturing, emotional past. Through the eyes of all readers a story unfolds that educates how a large family lived in the harsh, beautiful, Appalachian coal-mining area of Eastern Kentucky.
