

The Future of the Channel - An Introduction: Identifying Change in the GlobalPrintMediaChannel (GlobalChannelPartners - Bringing the Channel Together Book 4)

The GlobalPrintMediaChannel consists of manufacturers, distributors, dealers, consultants, associations, printmedia, event and exhibition organizers, education, academic and research institutions. This short E-Book The Future of the Channel - An Introduction follows several presentations at trade shows across the printworld and forms part of our new series of e-learning programs, the first of which GlobalChannelPartners 101 - Global Channel Overview, developed in conjunction with Strathclyde University and Create E-Learning (both of Glasgow, Scotland) will be launched in January 2016.
