Excerpt from A Memorial of the Pilgrims: The Presentation to the City of Boston in Massachusetts of an Ancient Railing From the City of Boston in Lincolnshire In April, 1918, Mr. George W. Coleman of this city was in Boston, England, in behalf of the Open Forum movement. During a stroll on the river embankment at that place he was shown part of an ancient oaken balustrade, once standing in the Palace of Justice, or Courtroom, of the old Guildhall of this ancient English city, and now held by the owner at the suitable disposition of the Boston Town Council. Before this rail some of the Pilgrim Fathers had appeared as prisoners in 1607, but what sentence was imposed by the Lords of the Council at the trial is not, and probably never will be, known. Among these prisoners was Elder William Brewster. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
