

The Force of Moderation: a compendium for excellence driven life

We form our habit from a number of frequent indulgences- pernicious or faith based ideologies. these forces either aids or mar our development and growth process. Force of moderation; a compendium for excellence driven life, is a book that critically examines the various character-based traits and how they influence individual development and organizational growth. It also examines present day individual and organizational activities to ensure whether or not standards, work and other business codes that regulate activities in a bit to actualizing set goals are dully observed. However the application of procedures, the best process leading to effectiveness is to inculcate best practice to achieving best and ultimate result. Many have failed in this area due mainly to wrong business forecast, business environment pressure, perceptions, etc. Force of moderation present a step-by-step guide which points a success inclined individual or organization to the best way of getting things done. It is easy to learn this steps for they suffice in contemporary life and capable of making you a transformed and effective individual and organization. Thus if you must win it all- in your organization or individually, the force of moderation is a must read for you as a guide to that state of success.
