

Misthaven of Maine (Volume 1)

With genuine characters and settings steeped in history with stunning visuals, American Author of the Misthaven of Maine Series, Loretta Boyer McClellan paints an engaging, coming-of-age journey, rich in the beauty of friendship and abiding love. Misthaven of Maine, Volume One offers readers an empowering, contemporary story, amidst the sweeping vistas and echoed grace of New England. Born and raised in Boston, with unyielding ties to her ancestral home of Maine and to the sea, sixteen year-old Eliza Hales is from affluent, yet grounded means. Despite experiencing her mother's death when she was a young girl, inner strength and confidence prevail, providing a well-rounded independence and knowledge of self, which carry her into adulthood and throughout her authentic life. An accomplished artist and sailor, her unshakable sense of family, loyalty and the pursuit of her dreams witness the growth of a remarkable soul, who lives and loves deeply, always true to her heart. Like the ocean itself, Misthaven of Maine offers up captivating and thoughtful treasures--a multilayered perspective, sure to entertain! Misthaven of Maine, Volume One is a contemporary, clean fiction, coming-of-age/romance novel. Recommended reader audience is ages 16 and up; as expected, parental guidance advised.
