

Godless Nerdistry: Or How to be a Bag of Chemicals and Still Have Fun.

What does Humanist Culture look like? About what youd expect when you get a bunch of philosophy and science nerds together and tell them to go nuts. In these articles, Dale DeBakcsy answers the big questions about how music, board games, comic books, literature, drama, psychology, science, and romance novels are all reacting to the emerging, and lusciously dorky, humanism of the twenty-first century, while at the same time casting a glance at some of the more amusing/terrifying (amusrifying?) holdovers from our religious past. All in the service of the great query - how do you have fun when you know youre a deterministic bag of chemicals?
