

A Pillow Down the Pan: The touching sequel to best-selling Knickers in the Fridge

Readers of Knickers in the Fridge will already be acquainted with Molly, Jane Griersons feisty and fun-loving mother who has now had Alzheimers for over fourteen years. Amazingly, Molly and her family are still finding occasions to smile, her daily care bringing the family closer and more self-supporting in spite of everything life throws at them. In A Pillow Down the Pan, we get to know Molly and her family even better, their life in a small Cornish village, reflections on the years pre-Alzheimers Disease, thoughts about potential causes and cures, and wondering if the family can stay the course. The story is an inspiration, whether to carers or mere observers. Read it and smile weep if you will and laugh as Molly would have done.
