

Things Id Love You to Know: A Journal for Mothers and Daughters

Have you ever wished for the chance to talk with your mother or daughter about the things only she would know? Things Id Love You to Know offers another way to celebrate the Bonus Years, the powerful time spent between mother and daughter later in life. Its a do-it-yourself memory book where each page shouts tribute and gratitude, and the chance to tell another story. Created by D. G. Fulford, who is her familys Designated Daughter, and inspired by D.G.s experiences with her own mother, this beautiful book is divided into sections that will call up experiences that are familiar to women everywhere. Its the ideal way for you or someone close to you to remember and record the milestones and everyday details of a very special relationship. And when writing is easier than talking, this volume offers a wonderful opportunity to connect with your mother or daughter and remind her of everything youd love her to know. A moving, wise, and beautiful keepsake, Things Id Love You to Know helps mothers and daughters examine and enjoy the positive, affirming bond that can be forged during a parents later years. This book--the companion fill-in journal to Designated Daughter--is the perfect treasure for you to share with the person you will always hold in your heart.
