

A Dream Shrouded in Wind: A 21st.C. Khazar Shamanic Voice

The basis of this book is the exploration of the art of Dreaming, the power of the Dream, the awareness of the Dreamer, in the shamanic world and using the Toltec methodology as taught by Don Juan Mathus. Having met and worked with a pupil of Don Juans, Ken Eagle Feather, from 1979 to 2003, I began to follow the Toltec path of dreaming and tracking. When Bulan came to ask my help, it required the crossing of a bridge spanning continents, from Central Asia to Central America. The Khazar shamans had had powerful dream contact with the Mayans and early Toltecs. The classic Mayan era is almost identical with that of the Khazar era. I was enabled, with Toltec disciplines, to cross and re-cross, in dreaming, the same bridge. Finally, in 2005, I made the physical journey to Guatamala and Mexico to try and re-start the connections made by my ancestors. The dream was reconnected to its origins in Central Asia and the Americas. It is now taking a new shamanic dimension. Bulans spirit has been released back into the custody of the Spiritkeepers of the Cosmos. It is his story, and has become my dream.
